2016 Youth Rally

November 11th

1. Purpose of this rally

"There is an ever-increasing gender blur crisis at hand in our world today, and even in our churches. At our 2016 youth rally at Iola Baptist Temple, we want to address that problem in a loving yet honest, Biblical manner."

- 1.1. Our purpose is to identify the gender blur problem we see in the world today.
- 1.2. Our purpose is to address the gender blur problem we see in the world today.
- 1.3. Our purpose is to provide an answer to the gender blur problem we see in the world today.

2. Plans for this rally

2.1. We plan to divide the rally into two segments:

2.1.1. Gender identity distinctions

- 2.1.1.1. Gender identity today
- 2.1.1.2. Gender identity stereotypes
- 2.1.1.3. Gender identity in the Bible

2.1.2. Gender role distinctions

- 2.1.2.1. Gender role today
- 2.1.2.2. Gender role stereotypes
- 2.1.2.3. Gender role in the Bible

2.2. We plan on having two brief videos to introduce each section of the rally

- 2.2.1. We want the videos to be good quality.
- 2.2.2. We want the videos to be interesting and thought provoking.
- 2.2.3. We want the videos to be God-honoring.

2.3. We plan on having teen participation through games and illustrations, etc.

2.4. We plan on highlighting the preaching time of the rally.

- 2.4.1. From first being greeted by workers, we want to be preparing visitors for the preaching.

- 2.4.2. While being served their food, eating, and being directed to the auditorium we want to be preparing them for the preaching.
- 2.4.3. Through the skits, videos, and even the games; we want to be preparing them to receive the message of the preaching.

"Henry, The New School Counselor"

(School bell rings)

(Henry walks in as announcement plays over the PA)

PA: "Attention students and faculty, we are pleased to announce that we have a new school counselor AND psychologist on duty now. We want to encourage you to step into his office if you are needing any assistance with your disabilities such as ADD, ADHD, OCD, PTSD; or if you are experiencing problems with bullying, low self-esteem, poor academic performance, or social anxiety due to something else that isn't your fault (like your weight, your gender, or your identity as a LGBTQ)."

(Teens walking to class, carrying books, book bags, etc.)

(Small group walking together)

Cherise: "Well guys, you go ahead, I think I'm going to talk to the new counselor for a minute."

Isaac: "Yeah, I miss the old counselor. He was really cool. He tried to help me with my VGAM"

Cherise: "What is VGAM?"

Isaac: "Video Game Anger Management. You've never heard of It?! See, I play a lot of video games, but while I'm playing them I get so angry. My parents get scared. No one knows what to do... but Mr. B would just let me play more video games."

Zachary: "Yeah, I used to go to him for my OCD. He'd let me organize all his books for him... by the way, that hat is really bugging me. Can you just wear it straight please!"

(Zachary straightens Isaac's hat)

Isaac: "Hey dude! Don't touch!"

(Zachary and Isaac walk off, and Cherise enters Henry's office)

Henry: (Standing and raising hat)

"Well, hi der. Hadya do?"

Cherise: "Uh. Hi. I hear you are the new counselor?"

Henry: "Dat's raht, Ma'am. Wut cud I do ya fer?"

Cherise: "Well, uh, I have this problem. Well, It's not really a problem I guess, but I feel like it is a problem for me... you see... well, I kind of feel like I want to be a boy..."

Henry: (jumps back in his chair)

"Whoah der! You defnitly gots a problem!"

Cherise: "What do you mean?"

Henry: "Wut duz I meen? Wut ar ya, some kinda weirdy?"

Cherise: "What? My teachers say we are all weird in our own way... but our weirdness is what makes us special."

Henry: "Special?! Wut's special 'bout a woman dat wants to be a man? Ah-right, let's see heer, I thinks I can helps ya out. All ya needs her is to member two words. Ready?"

Cherise: "Wait! I'll get my notebook out so I can write them down."

Henry: "Uh...It's just two words, ma'am. Most peoples can member two words... but ok, if it helps ya.

Ready? Two words... STOP IT!"

Cherise: (Falling out of chair)

"What?"

Henry: "I says 'stop it,' S - T- uh - 0 ...

Cherise: "No, I mean, I know what you said, but what do you mean?"

Henry: (laughing)

"You know, people says I'm not very smart. Maybe dey's raht. But I don't know why peoples don't understand deez two simple words. Just stop it, ma'am. God made you a wumans... just be a wumans."

Cherise: "But, I can't help it. Like, for example, I like to climb trees..."

Henry: "Aint nuthin wrong wit no wuman climbing trees! Mah Liza gets dem coons out da trees all da times. I can't get up der no more on account of my bad knees...an my big belly. heehee."

Cherise: "Well, I also want to dress like men dress."

Henry: "Well, stop it."

Cherise: "Just stop it?"

Henry: "Now you gettin it. Run along to yer class now, ya heer? Yous gunna be late..."

Oh, and if you gotsta use da toilet, make sure you go in da ones dat got da person wit da dress on, ok?!

(Cherise leaves the office, rolling eyes)

Kids deez days! You gotsta be reel pacific wit dem.

(Henry leaves shaking his head)
